

What can you do to help at home?

Talk to your children about what rights they have and how they can promote these rights at home.

Remind your children about the differences between wants and needs.

Allow your children to take on small responsibilities at home.

Watch the news with your children and talk about issues and how these may affect other children around the world.

Discuss ways you can help support children in countries that are not able to access their rights.

What is a Rights Respecting School?

The Rights Respecting Schools Award puts children's rights at the heart of school life.

The UK Committee for UNICEF (UNICEF UK) works with schools in the UK to create safe and inspiring places to learn, where children are respected, their talents are nurtured and they are able to thrive. Our Rights Respecting Schools Award embeds these values in daily school life and gives children the best chance to lead happy, healthy lives and to be responsible, active citizens.

What is the UNCRC?

UNCRC stands for 'United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child'.

There are 54 articles which outline all the rights a child has.

Children's Rights at Vauvert

Children's rights are an integral part of our ethos and values at Vauvert and we are proud to be a Silver Rights Respecting school.

They support our view that our children achieve most when they feel included and valued.

Through the Rights Respecting Schools Award, we intend to strengthen pupil voice, promote equality and well-being, and support children to become confident, compassionate, and responsible individuals.

Our Vauvert tag line
